

Hospitality Uniform Requirements

Prior to entering the CIT Restaurant or Cafe, students must conform to the following dress standards, which includes a complete, clean, and ironed uniform.

Students must not wear their uniform whilst travelling to CIT. Changerooms and lockers are available for students in K Block.

Students will not be permitted into class unless they are wearing the approved uniform.

Uniform requirements:

Practical Restaurant Classes:

- Black Trousers (a tailored type style, not hipsters, not denim and no leggings of any form).
- Black Stockings/Pantyhose or Socks.
- Black Shoes (enclosed, plain leather, flat or low heels clean and polished).
- White long sleeve, collared, buttoned shirt.
- CIT apron (approx. $50.00 from CITSA Shop at CIT Reid campus)

Practical Cafe Classes:

-
- Black Trousers (a tailored type style, not hipsters, not denim and no leggings of any form).
- Black Stockings/Pantyhose or Socks.
- Black Shoes (enclosed, plain leather, flat or low heels clean and polished).
- Black polo shirt with CIT logo (approx. $25.00 from CITSA Shop at CIT Reid campus)

Uniform must be clean, ironed, and free of rips, tears, and stains.

Personal hygiene and grooming requirements:

- Fingernails are to be short, clean and with no nail polish.
- Wash hands when entering the Restaurant and regularly thereafter, including:
  - When returning from a break and after going to the bathroom.
  - If you have sneezed or blown your nose.
  - If you have touched your hair or face.
- Hair must be clean and tied back. No hair hanging over the face.
- Avoid touching nose, mouth, and ears.
- Cover all cuts, burns and sores with a waterproof dressing.

- NO jewellery is permitted to be worn except for a wedding ring. Students are to ensure that they wash underneath the wedding ring thoroughly when washing their hands. If earrings must be worn, they are to be stud type earrings.
- Daily shower and use of deodorant.
- Brush teeth after eating or smoking.

Theory Classes:

Neat and tidy casual attire is required.